

FAQ - ASO EVENT CANCELLATION DECLARATION

I could not participate in the event. What should I do?

If you subscribed to the cancellation insurance, please make your claim using the following link
<https://timeto.aonassurances.com>

I cannot find the event for which I registered in the drop-down menu:

Claims can be reported up to 2 months before the event, and 15 days after it occurs.

What supporting documents should I provide in case of illness or accident?

A medical certificate indicating your inability to participate in the event, established no later than two days after the event.

How will I be reimbursed?

If your claim is validated, the reimbursement will be transferred to your bank account within two months of the event.

What will be reimbursed?

The registration fee only will be reimbursed. The amount of the options chosen at registration will not be reimbursed.

I made an error when making the claim:

You can proceed to a second declaration which will replace the previous one.

I did not subscribe to the cancellation insurance, can I still be reimbursed?

Under the current rules and regulations, if you have not subscribed to the cancellation insurance upon registration to the event, you will not be entitled to a reimbursement, whatever the reason.

I cannot remember if I subscribed to the cancellation insurance:

Please connect to your time to account (www.timeto.com).

Once logged in, please click on « My events » and choose your race. All the details of your registration will appear, including the subscription to the cancellation insurance if chosen.
